Advisory Action

The reference to Sutherland does not disclose a trim molding covering an air bag, however, it is inherent that such feature is present with this particular art. Also, it is old and well known in the art to use some types of covering or trim molding for aesthetic purpose. Note, the applicant's drawings did not show the trim molding feature.

With regard to claims 1-20, the applicant can not show non-obviousness by attacking references individually where, as here the rejections are based on combination of references. In re Keller, 208 USPQ 871 (CCPA 1981). Also, it is not necessary that the references actually suggest, expressly or in so many words, the changes or improvements that applicant has made. The test for combining references is what the references as a whole would have suggested to one of ordinary skill in the art. In re Sheckler, 168 USPQ 716 (CCPA 1971); In re McLaughlin 170 USPQ 209 (CCPA 1971); In re Young 159 USPQ 725 (CCPA 1968).
